DSEX ended in green for the week increasing by 84.80 points [1.66%] compared to the previous week. It stands at 5199.40 points.

Index started the week with a significant fall of 149 points in the opening trading day which caused the index to drop below 5000 points. Index fell by another 67 points in the following trading day to sit at around 4900 level. However, the index started to rebound and rose by three digit figures in the next two trading days as investors looked to capitalize on lucratively priced scrips based on latest earnings and dividends declarations. Furthermore, on account of potential liquidity support through ICB and potential withdrawal of capital gains tax on individual level, the index went higher to close out the week. Overall, the index has rose by around 85 points against successive declines over the previous five weeks.

Investor participation increased as reflected by increase in average daily turnover by around 23% and the average daily turnover rose above BDT 400 Crore level. Investors' trades in this week predominantly focused on Bank scrips followed by Pharmaceuticals and Textile scrips. In terms of sectoral returns, the Mutual Funds sector posted highest returns of 10.14% while the Bank sector underwent losses of 0.51%.

Market capitalization stands at USD 55.4 Billion*.

*(USD 1 = BDT 120.00 as on October 31, 2024).
