01. Market Commentary

DSEX ended in green for the week increasing by 32.61 points [0.64%] compared to the previous week. It stands at 5166.53 points.

The index went up in this week after undergoing lackluster performance in the beginning three weeks of 2025. Investors capitalized on the highly discounted scrips and took long positions on those which expected to have a positive momentum due to anticipated positive earnings declaration. In the latter half of the week the index was down due to dominance of selling pressure. Overall, the market was in the positive territory as investors saw decline in inflation and treasury yields.

Investor participation increased further this week as reflected by increase in average daily turnover by around 9% causing the average daily turnover to rise above BDT 400 Crore level. Investors' trades in this week focused on Pharmaceuticals scrips followed by Textile and Engineering scrips. In terms of sectoral returns, the IT sector posted the highest gains of 5.05% while the Fuel & Power sector shed the most with 1.63%.

Market capitalization stands at USD 54.1 Billion*.

*(USD 1 = BDT 122.00 as on January 23, 2025).
